THE WHITE FAMILY GENEALOGY

By

Thomas Anderson White

I am one of the Whites from Indiana. The eldest of ten kids, I grew up in a very modest and humble Christian upbringing. That's a nice way of saying that I grew up very poor but happy. My father was also the oldest child out of an even larger family of Whites, who originated in Trumbull County, Ohio. All his siblings have remained in Indiana, but my brothers and sisters and their families have scattered across the country. My son Jeremy and family live in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, and daughter Lyndsay and family live in Winston-Salem, North Carolina. My mother's family are all Tar Heels and I retired from a large NC based corporation, therefore, I remained in the South making the North Carolina coastal fishing village of Sneads Ferry my retirement home with my lovely wife Pamala. My primary interests include music, boating & fishing, and
